VISION

The Beltline Urban Mural Project (BUMP) is an award winning community-driven project to showcase art, promote tourism, improve the public realm and build community spirit in Calgary. Now entering its fourth year, BUMP has curated a diverse portfolio of local, national and international artists who have created eye-catching, inspiring and beautiful murals in Calgary. The project continues to expand with the 2020 BUMP Festival celebrating art, music and community.

We believe that public art can enrich communities, create beautiful and captivating places, challenge our ideas, provoke discussion and add beauty to the everyday.

Visitors have the unique opportunity to explore the new murals in progress, attend artist talks, enjoy outdoor cinema celebrating the visual arts, and hear live music throughout the festival.

LIVE MUSIC

BUMP headlines some of the most exciting national and international DJs and electronic music artists alongside top local talent through one of a kind performances at alley parties, parks, art galleries and the club.

ARTIST TALKS

Our artist talks allow for in-depth conversation with the artists to learn more about their practice, inspiration and themes from their work. From intimate conversation at the McHugh House Community & Arts Hub to artist panels at the Contemporary Calgary planetarium theatre we're excited to help share the stories behind the artists.

MURAL TOURS

The BUMP Festival provides visitors the opportunity to be the first to explore Calgary's latest murals with free guided mural tours. Knowledgeable guides provide the stories behind the murals, the artists, and insightful context from each neighbourhood.

OUTDOOR CINEMA

BUMP partners with the Calgary Underground Film Festival (CUFF) to curate film that elevates Calgary's cultural landscape with the best in independent cinema and a keen focus on the visual arts. Set in Central Memorial Park, a designated National Historic Site, our Movie in the Park event invites visitors to share in a magical experience of cinema under the stars.

KIDS PROGRAMS

We're focused on helping cultivate emerging and future local artists. The BUMP Festival is an opportunity to enrich and inspire with hands on spray painting and mural workshops for all-ages.
